

Editorial guidelines

- 1) Papers should be sent together with a copyright transfer agreement, where the author(s) grant(s) and assign(s) to the Editor of the Journal during the full term of copyright (20 years under current regulation) the exclusive rights to translate, reproduce, republish, transfer, sell, distribute or otherwise use the article or parts contained therein, for publication in any format. It thus includes electronic editions and derivative works in all languages and in all media of expression now known or later developed as well as the license or permission given to others to use the article in whole or in part free of charge or against payment.
- 2) Articles should contain name(s) of author(s), affiliation (university, research centre, etc.), address and phone numbers of the author(s). Further details about the article are to be clearly indicated as footnote in the first page, using * and  as reference mark, while for the footnotes through the text make use of the numerical system starting over with number 1 at the beginning of each paper.
- 3) A concise and factual abstract in Italian and in English is required. Do not exceed 2000 strokes per each one (including spaces). Each abstract should give the salient information on the contents of the article and be expressed in the third person (Example: the authors affirm that...). All articles written in Italian must include the English translation of the title.
- 4) Immediately after the abstracts, provide a maximum of 6 keywords in Italian and 6 in English. Words selected should reflect the essential topics of the article and will be used for indexing purposes.
- 5) Set-up of the page and quotations - Use Roman type, Italic and Bold font. Italics should be used for foreign words that do not yet have everyday use and to stress words or short sentences. In order to emphasize sentences or quotations that are not exactly cited, make use of inverted commas (“...”); for exact quotations use guillemets («...»). At the end of the quotation provide in brackets the references to the specific pages of the source used (73-74), if these are not already specified before. Use inverted commas or apostrophes to indicate quotes within quotes. Lengthy quotations (more than 5 lines) should be separated from the text and have a blank line above and below. As they will be printed in a smaller font, it should be advisable to use it also in the manuscript. Use ellipsis dots (...) to show omission.
- 6) Font Type
 - Text: Times New Roman at a size 11 points, justified, single spacing, paragraph indent 0,5 cm, use automated widow control.
 - Title of the article: Times New Roman, size of the text 14, flush left.
 - Title of the section: Times New Roman, size 11, bold, flush left, 2 double spacing above and 1 below.
 - Title of subsection: Times New Roman, size of the text, flush left, 2 double spacing above and 1 below.
 - Page number: Times, Italic, size of the text, centered, no indent or frame.

- Footnotes: placed at the bottom of the page, Times, font at size 9 points, one spacing, indent 0,5 cm, numbering sequentially to footnote 1, without references.
- References: Times, font at size 9 points, one spacing, hanging indent 0, 5.
- Heading and footer: Times, font at size 9 points.
- Footer: on the first page of each article cite the title of the journal, the number and the year of publication (Società e storia 119, 2008).
- Heading: it may include the name of the author(s) on the left pages (even), the title of the article or of the section on the right pages (odd).

7) References embedded in the text: cite only the last name of the author followed by one space and then the year of the first publication of the work in its original language in round brackets.

- Example: Freud (1899) said that.... or insert the last name of the author followed by comma, one space and the year of publication in round brackets.

- Example: (Freud, 1899).

Page number, if known, follows the year in brackets and does not go into the reference section.

- Example: (Loewald, 1980, p. 56).

If the page number refers to the original date of the work and not to the Italian translation listed in the references section, add "original edition." (Loewald, 1980, p. 56 original edition.). If the reference section contains more than one translation, specify the year of the translation which you are referring to.

- Example: (Loewald, 1980, p. 97 It. trans. 1994)

If there is more than one reference to the same author(s) and year, use the year and a, b, etc. Use comma to separate references and not pages, if given, when listing a string of references of the same author(s). If there are more authors, use semicolon to separate them within the same brackets. When there are two authors, cite both last names joined by and. If there are three authors, cite them all and join the last two by and; if there are more than three authors, refer to the first one followed by et al in Italic. See following examples:

- Freud (1899) said that
- According to the theory of dreams (Freud, 1899)
- The principles of the cognitive therapy (Beck et al., 1979) affirm that...
- Kernberg (1981, p. 35) says textually that...
- Eissler (1953) wrote that «Every introduction of a parameter incurs the danger that a resistance has been temporarily eliminated without having been properly analyzed» (p. 65).

8) Reference section: the complete reference list of the authors comes at the end of the article and consists of an unnumbered section sorted alphabetically according to their last name; for each author follow the year of publication of his works. If works were published in the same year use letters a, b, c. If there are two authors with the same last name (for example Melanie Klein and George S. Klein), cite them alphabetically according to the order of their first name; if the last names and the initials of their first names are the same, use their full name: first and last name and also middle initial (for example Daniel N. Stern and Donnel B. Stern). After the last name and the initial of the first name, cite the year in brackets followed by a full stop.

- Example: Freud S. (1910).

Avoid spaces between first name initial and middle initial.

- Example Kernberg O.F.

Should a text have many authors/editors, you have to cite them all. The editor(s) name is followed by brackets with ed. or eds. Please quote only what it is contained in the article. If the publication year is different from that of the original one, cite it after the name of the publisher, otherwise it is enough to put the year in brackets at the beginning of the entry, immediately after the name of the author.
